PROCEEDINGS

Papers selected for presentation will appear in the Conference Proceedings, which will be published by the IEEE Computer Society and be submitted to IEEE Xplore for inclusion.

Regular Papers

Papers must be submitted electronically by the above deadline. Each paper will be evaluated by at least three reviewers. All manuscripts will be reviewed and judged on merits including originality, significance, interest, correctness, clarity, and relevance to the broader community.

Submitted papers must include original work, and may not be under consideration for another conference or journal. They should also not be under review or be submitted to another forum during the review process. Authors should submit full papers or posters electronically following the instructions from the conference web site. Authors of accepted papers/poster are expected to present their work at the conference.

Submissions should not exceed 8 two-column, 8.5x11 inch pages (including figures, tables, and references) in 10 point fonts. Please include 5-10 keywords, complete postal and e-mail address, and fax and phone numbers of the corresponding author. If you have difficulties with electronic submission, please contact Technical Program Co-Chairs. Papers must not be published or under consideration to be published elsewhere.

Short Papers

Submitted papers that are deemed of good quality but that could not be accepted as regular papers will be accepted as short papers.

Demonstrations

The proposal must describe the demonstrated system, clearly indicate what is going to be demonstrated, and state the significance of the contribution. Demonstration papers will appear in the proceedings as short papers.

Workshops, Tutorials and Panel Submission

Proposals for workshops (resp. tutorials and panels) should be submitted directly to workshop chairs (resp. tutorials chairs and PC chairs).

Posters and Doctoral Symposium

Research still in early stages and doctoral research proposals may be submitted as extended abstracts that must not exceed 750 words. Accepted abstracts will be included in a special poster session dedicated to doctoral research proposals and related research.
